Methodist Church Announces Revival Meetings For Week With Noted Leader in Charge

By FRED M. ESSIG
Warren C. McIntire, evangelist of the Methodist Church in Southern California, will conduct revival services in the First Methodist Church of Torrance, beginning next Sunday morning. The services will continue every evening at 7:30, except Saturdays, until December 20.

Rev. McIntire has had a remarkably successful career as a pastor and evangelist. Wherever he has been pastor of a church or holding special evangelistic meetings many have found their way to God. All over Southern California his converts rise up to "call him blessed." This year, in recognition of his special gifts, the annual conference of the Methodist Church in this part of the state appointed him as conference evangelist, a signal honor and opportunity.

The pastor of the local Methodist Church was led to Christ several years ago in Rev. McIntire's church. This warm personal relationship made it possible to secure this remarkable preacher for these special meetings.

During the meetings Mr. and Mrs. Rollin T. Holmes of San Pedro will be at each service as soloists and song leaders. At many of the week-day services Hobart Bateson of Gardena will be present to assist with his "consecrated cornet." The entire orchestra of the Gardena M. E. Church will assist in the music on an evening to be announced later. CUT

Elks' Big Charity Party on Monday

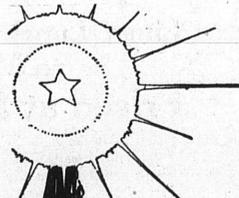

Local Elks are expected to make the Elks Temple at Redondo Beach their Mecca next Monday night when the Redondo lodge stages its annual masquerade and charity ball. All of the proceeds will go into the Elks' Christmas charity fund. Prizes valued at $200 will be given away free.
